

THE DENVER PSYCHOANALYTIC SOCIETY'S FILM SERIES

Oscar Wilde has been called the first martyr of the gay movement. This film, with its double entendre title, depicts the events and court actions which led to the conviction and imprisonment of Wilde in 1895 on charges of "gross indecency". It also depicts Wilde's part in his demise. The intensity of the dark prejudice and murderous hatred for homosexual men illustrated in this story seem nearly unbelievable, yet still exist in certain parts of our world. The film does not spare us the horror of the destruction of Wilde's life, yet manages to include many quotes of Oscar Wilde's famous extravagant wit. There are excellent performances by Peter Finch as Wilde, Lionel Jeffries as the Marquis of Queensbury, and James Mason as Queensbury's attorney.

- Fred Mimmack, MD

WHEN:

Friday, January 11, 2019
At 6:30 P.M.

WHERE:

Montview Blvd.
Presbyterian Church
1980 Dahlia St., Denver

DISCUSSANT:

Fred Mimmack, M.D.

Dr. Mimmack is a member of the Denver Institute for Psychoanalysis and the Denver Psychoanalytic Society. For many years, his interests have included the psychology of sport, of creativity, and the long-term effects of childhood sexual abuse.

COST:

There is no charge to attend but donations are welcomed!

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Visit our events page at www.denverpsychoanalytic.org

The Denver

Psychoanalytic Society